mobilezone expands the Group Executive Board to five members

Regensdorf, 15 November 2016 – mobilezone is expanding the Group Executive Board from three to five members, thereby taking into account the new group structure. The Group Executive Board is being expanded with experienced, younger employees from the company's own ranks.

In the Group Executive Board, the managing directors of einsAmobile Deutschland, Murat Ayhan and Akin Erdem, will be responsible for the cross-border areas of E-Commerce and Operator Relations as well as Purchase and Wholesale. Roger Wassmer, previously responsible for the group's repair business, will in future also be responsible for the Operations division in Switzerland.

From the beginning of 2017, the new Group Executive Board under CEO Markus Bernhard (52, existing board member) will comprise CFO Andreas Fecker (44, existing board member), Murat Ayhan (39, new board member) as Managing Director Germany, Akin Erdem (42, new board member) as Managing Director Germany, and Roger Wassmer (43, new board member) as COO Switzerland/Austria.

Werner Waldburger, previously Chief Product Officer, will leave the Group Executive Board at his own request and will continue to provide the company with his extensive knowledge in the areas of telecommunications and retail in the Business Steering Switzerland division.

mobilezone is convinced that it has set the course for future success with this younger management.
